We pray for Pope Francis as he visits Thailand & Japan on Nov 19th – 26th

Pope Francis returns to Asia on Nov. 19th for a visit to Thailand and Japan, two predominantly Buddhist countries where Christians remain a tiny minority. He goes to encourage the small Catholic community in each country, foster dialogue with the other religions of these lands and promote peace through a call for the elimination of nuclear arms.

It will be his first visit to Thailand, a country of 69 million people. He comes to celebrate the 350th anniversary of the establishment of the first Mission of Siam, as Thailand was then known, in 1669. The motto for the visit—"Christ's disciples, missionary disciples"—conveys that evangelization is at the heart of his purpose in coming to Thailand. Pope Francis' cousin, Salesian sister Ana Rosa Sivori, who has been a missionary in Thailand for 50 years, will translate for him into Thai during his visit

It is his second visit to Japan, a country of 6,852 islands and 126 million people. It is the world's third largest economy, after the United States and China. "Protect all life" is the motto for his visit, and his first goal is to encourage the tiny Catholic community in Japan. He is expected to strongly condemn nuclear arms, not only the threat to use them, but also the very possession of such arms, as he did in November 2017.

FEAST OF OUR LORD JESUS CHRIST THE KING

This Sunday brings the Church's liturgical year to its conclusion. Today we celebrate our King whose wealth lies in his love for all, and whose authority is exercised through the service of those who are often considered the least in society.

Through his life and death, Jesus reveals the wondrous and challenging nature of his kingship. Luke's Gospel, in particular, emphasises that God's universal love and forgiveness are revealed in the person of Jesus Christ. Even in his dying moments, Jesus was more concerned with saving others than saving himself. (Gospel)

'Jesus, remember me
when you come into your kingdom.'

This week, we might join with Pope Francis in praying to share the Church's Universal Mission, that we and all Christians might strengthen and grow God's mission through the Church by our own prayer and action. Amen.
